

Sinclair
Broadcasting's
decision to force
their stations to
air an anti-Kerry
documentary days
before the election
is a clear example
of the dangers of
media consolidation.
And it simply isn't
right.

Sinclair uses the public airwaves free of charge. It is obligated by law to serve the public interest with those airwaves, not Sinclair's political agenda.
Unfortunately, when
large companies
control the airwaves, we get more of what's good
for the bottom line
and less of what we need for our democracy.

Sinclair's actions
show why we need to strengthen media
ownership rules, not weaken them. They show why the license
renewal process
needs to involve
more than a returned postcard. Thank you.
